They expressed their willingness to help restore sports structures in Kuwait, which were formerly run with very great competence by their late colleague Sheikh Fahad Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah, IOC member in that country and an eminent leader of the Olympic Movement in Asia. The Board also reiterated its full support for and confidence in the IOC delegation which, led by one of the IOC's Vice Presidents, H.E. Judge Kéba Mbaye, IOC member in Senegal, is to visit South Africa at the end of March.

Also on the programme of this, the Executive Board's first meeting of the year, was the progress of preparations by the Organizing Committees of Albertville/Savoy 92 and Barcelona 92 for the Games next year. Finally, the Board proposes to hold other such meetings from time to time in order to give itself opportunities to discuss and reflect upon major events and their impact on sport and the Olympic Movement.
