

Countess Bonacossa with the IOC President and Mr Jean-François Pahud, Director of the Olympic Museum, who received her collection.

sport. The "Olympic Review" will publish the reports of these annual prize-givings, which can be accompanied by photographs of the architect's work.

TWO NEW DIRECTORS IN THE IOC SECRETARIAT

During the end-of-year cocktail at Olympic House, a friendly annual occasion at which the members of the IOC Secretariat, the directors, the President and IOC members visiting Lausanne get together and exchange the traditional greetings, Mr Juan Antonio Samaranch warmly thanked every one working for the IOC and reminded them of what it means to be working for the Olympic Movement, particularly in the year of the Games. Mr François Carrard, who paid tribute to Mrs Zweifel, IOC Secretary General, then emphasized the great responsibility ahead for staff in this Olympic Year, declaring himself sure of the determination of everyone, each in their own field, to make the Games another success. Mr Carrard then announced that Messrs José Sotelo, head of the press department for the president's office, and Alexandre Fellrath, head of the IOC computer services department, had become directors.

THE BONACOSSA DONATION

Countess Alberta Bonacossa, the daughter of Count Alberto Bonacossa, IOC member in Italy from 1925 to 1953, has donated to the IOC a collection of objects that belonged to her father. The items retrace the sports career of a outstanding figure who was a national figure skating champion in individual and, with his wife, in pairs events, as well as a tennis champion and then an international judge in both sports. The Countess, the proprietor of the famous Milanese sports daily "La Gazzetta dello Sport", which was awarded the Olympic Cup 1990 on the occasion of its centenary, presented the collection to President Samaranch during a visit to Olympic House at the end of last year.