THE PRINCESS ROYAL

A member of the IOC since 1988, the Princess Royal took part in the equestrian six-day event at the 1976 Games of the XXI Olympiad in Montreal as a member of the British team, having been gold medallist in the European individual six-day-eventing competitions in 1971. The Princess Royal devotes much of her time to institutions that are concerned with children's welfare, including the Save the Children Fund. She is President of the British Olympic Association and succeeded her father, Philip Prince of Edinburgh, as President of the Federation Equestre International (FEI) from 1986 to 1994.
