

The Olympic Academy of El Salvador organized its first exhibition of Olympic pins and posters last year at the Alliance Française of San Salvador.

PHILATELY FESTIVAL IN ATLANTA

The IOC will be sponsoring exhibitions of stamps, coins and memorabilia as part of the Cultural Olympiad of the Games of the XXVI Olympiad in Atlanta. The 6th edition of Olymphilex, featuring stamps on sporting and Olympic themes, will for the first time be conducted according to competition criteria defined by the International Philately Federation. The Olympic Museum's philately collection will also be on display. Almost 100 postal administrations will be represented, including the USPS agency (United States), which will issue a special series of 20 stamps featuring various sports and the famous "Discobolus" by Myron. A special United Nations stamp will be issued on 18 July, the date Olymphilex '96 opens in Atlanta. Letters bearing the special Olympic site postmark can be posted in letterboxes dating from 1896 to 1900 from different countries.
