

INTERNATIONAL OLOF PALME FOUNDATION

In early December 1995, the International Olof Palme Foundation (FIOP) organized a symposium in Barcelona on the themes “the Olympic spirit and its potential for peace and security in the Mediterranean” and “the Olympic Truce as an instrument of peace”. The participants included (from left to right) Josep Lluís Vilaseca; Rafael Cortés Elvira, Spanish Secretary of State for sport; Anna Balletbó, secretary general of the FIOP; Jerónimo Saavedra, Spanish Minister for education and science; Fékrou Kidane, representative of the IOC President; Sinam Erdem, IOC member and president of the Turkish NOC; Isidre Baro Cabanes, president of the NOC of Andorra, and Roma Cuyas, former Spanish Secretary of State for sport.
