

“Building together”

The National Olympic Committee of Cameroon has just produced a new version of its official publication “Flash Olympique” (Olympic Update), containing the latest national and international sports and Olympic information.

René Essomba, NOC president and IOC member, hopes that this new “Update” will be “a torchbearer for the development in Cameroon of physical and sports education, Olympism and culture for young people and future generations”.