Drago Ulaga (left) was pre- with the IOC Centennial Olympic Games Trophy by the Slovenian NOC president, Rajko Sugman. The author of many articles and books on sport, Ulaga is currently regarded as Slovenia's top expert in the field. At the same time, the Slovenian athletes who placed in the top eight at the Games of the

XXVI Olympiad in Atlanta received their Olympic participant pins and diplomas: Brigita Bukovec (silver medal in the 100m hurdles), Andraz Vehovar (silver medal in the canoe slalom), Iztok Cop (4th in the skiff), Jani Klemencic, Sadik Mujkic, Milan Jansa and Denis Zvegelj (4th in the quadruple sculls), Samo Medved, Ma-tevez Krumpestar and Peter Koprivnikar (5th in team archery), Gregor Cankar (6th in the long jump) and Jernej Abramic (7th in the canoe slalom).
