Held every four years and patronized by the IOC, the Pacific Gymfest was organized last January at the Mystery Creek Event Centre, 11 km outside of Hamilton. Almost 600 gymnasts from Australia, Germany, Japan and New Zealand participated in different programmes such as tumbling, aerobics, dance, mini-trampoline and rhythmic. Tay Wilson, IOC member in New Zealand, opened the Gymfest, which was attended by a total of 5,000 people.
