

NEWS

---

Guatemala

The “Golden Rings for Peace” (Aros Dorados por la Paz) 5km run was held under the auspices of the IOC. Four thousand five hundred runners set off from five different locations in Guatemala City, the country’s capital, and crossed the finish line in the Ejercito Stadium. The audience in the stadium, which included Willi Kaltschmitt Lujan, IOC member in Guatemala and president of the NOC, David García, a representative of the Ministry of Culture and Sports, and various political and sports figures, enjoyed a programme of various sport demonstrations including fencing, wrestling, kendo, judo, volleyball, boxing, artistic and rhythmic gymnastics, aerobics, taekwondo, kempo, kung fu and karate do. A concert by the group Alux Nahual brought to a close this event devoted to peace through sport.

Spectators filling the stadium.

Final rehearsals.