

---

Bulgaria

At its general assembly in February, the NOC of Bulgaria unanimously adopted a national programme entitled "Sydney 2000" with a view to developing sport and the Olympic Movement in Bulgaria and preparing the national Olympic team for the year 2000. The programme addresses all aspects of sports development, including socio-economic and technical matters, management, funding, reconstruction and maintenance of sports facilities, the promotion of the Olympic ideal, sport for all activities, etc., and makes athletes' health its top priority.

The assembly also approved the statutes of the Bulgarian court of arbitration for sport.