

From Cancún to Lausanne

Of the 35 participants in the seminar organized in Cancún in November 1996 for women sports journalists from Central and Latin American and the Caribbean, four, selected by drawing of lots, were invited by the IOC President to cover the meetings held in Lausanne in March of this year. (Left to right) Diana Garcia Guerra from Opciones (Mexico), Yeny González Hernani from Hoy Deportivo (Bolivia), Beatriz Vázquez Hernández of Radio UNAM (Mexico) and Dahlia Marte Harris of the Jamaica Broadcasting Corporation (Jamaica) saw the heart of Olympic activity and were able to discover for the first time what goes on "behind the scenes" of Olympism.
