

EDITORIAL

The Australian Society for Sports History Bulletin is produced to complement the journal, Sporting Traditions. It is envisaged that it will be published three times per year and will be a forum for members to share information about many aspects of sports history.

The success of the Bulletin is dependent upon contributions from members and I look forward to receiving comments and criticisms about this inaugural issue when you forward to me your contribution for the second edition.

I would be delighted to receive material such as:

- Conference reports and publicity
- News of visitors and forthcoming events
- Overseas news
- Appeals for information
- Outlines of sports history courses in Australia
- Bibliographies on specific topics
- Research problems
- Opinions about Sports History
- Current interests and work in progress of members

Copy deadline for the next edition is July 15, 1985 as it is intended that the next Bulletin will be produced in time for initial distribution (to save postage) at the ASSH Conference in August.

Bulletin No.2 (July-August, 1985) will also include features such as:

- Recent Honours, Masters and Doctoral theses in the history of sport (completed at Australian institutions)

- Current work in progress being undertaken by ASSH members

- An article by Greg Blood, Cataloguing Librarian on the historical holdings of the Information Centre of the Australian Institute of Sport.

Please forward your contributions to Ian F. Jobling, ASSH Bulletin Editor, Department of Human Movement Studies, University of Queensland, St. Lucia, Q. 4067.
