

EDITORIAL

Bulletin No. 2 is being issued a little later than was stated in the Editorial in Bulletin No. 1. It has now been decided by ASSH Executive that two Bulletins a year will be published to complement the journal, Sporting Traditions. As stated previously, the success of the Bulletin is dependent upon contributions from members. Please forward material about:

- Conference reports and publicity
- News of visitors and forthcoming events
- Overseas News
- Appeals for information
- Outlines of sport history courses/subjects
- Bibliographies on specific topics
- Research problems
- Opinions about Sport History
- Current interests and work in progress of members
- Recently completed books, articles, theses, publications by members

Copy deadline for the next edition is February 15, 1986. Please forward contributions to Ian Jobling, ASSH Bulletin Editor, Department of Human Movement Studies, University of Queensland, St. Lucia. Qld. 4067.

BULLETIN No. 3 will also include :

- * Published books authored by ASSH Members since 1980
- * Academic theses in the history of sport completed at Australian institutions in the last 10 years
