

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

At the First Annual Meeting of the Sport Literature Association, held at La Jolla, California in July, 1984, the following papers were presented:

"Out of Bounds: Ethics in Sports Journalism". K. Tim Wulfemeyer, Department of Journalism, University of Hawaii-Manoa.

"Trends in Daily Newspaper Sports Reporting". Douglas, A. Anderson, Department of Journalism, Arizona State University.

"Sportswriters as Adolescents?" Eric M. Odendahl, Department of Journalism, San Diego State University.

"The Brawnville Papers: Fact and Fiction". Joan Paul, Southeastern Louisiana University.

"The 'Close' Western: Contemporary Sport Films". Stephen David Mosher, Amherst, Massachusetts.

"Cliff Young, Australia's answer to Mrs. Robinson". James Odenkirk, Department of Physical Education, Arizona State University.

"Sports in the Bible". Alfred F. Boe, Department of English and Comparative Literature, San Diego State University.

"Dialectics and Sport in A Separate Peace". Kent Cartwright, Division of Arts and Humanities, University of Maryland, and Mary McElroy, Department of Physical Education, Kansas State University.

"A Theory for the Dynamics of Sports Fiction". Christian Messenger, Department of English, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle.

"Roller Ball and Sport in the Future". David L. Vanderwerken, Department of English, Texas Christian University.

"The Woman in Sport - In Literature and Life". Joyce Mills. Department of Physical Education, University of New Hampshire.

"Sports Poetry". David Allan Evans, Department of English, South Dakota State University.

"Greek Literature and the Games" Jeffrey Henderson, Department of Classics, University of Southern California.

"The Athlete as Performing Artist: The Embodiment of Sport Literature and Philosophy". Seymour Kleinman, Department of Physical Education, The Ohio State University.

"The Nature of Early Victor Statues". Stephen Lattimore, Department of Classics and Archaeology, University of California at Los Angeles.

"The Myth of the Five Olympic Rings" David Young, Department of Classics, University of California at Santa Barbara.

"Combat and Contest: Athletic Metaphors for Warfare in Greek Literature". Thomas F. Scanlon, Department of Classics, university of California at Riverside.

"Fama: Sports Record Inflations". Robert Heilman, Department of English, University of Washington.

"Moralists, Metaphysicians and Mythologists: The 'Signifiers' of a Victorian Sub-culture". J.A. Mangan, College of Education, Jordanhill College, Scotland.

"The Pole of Sports and Physical Education in Gunter Grass: Cat and Mouse". Nanda Fischer, Lehrstuhl for Sportpadagogik, Technische Universität München.

"Frank Merriwell in his Time". Michael Oriard, Department of English, Oregon State University.

* * * * *

At the Second Annual conference of the British Society of Sports History, held at Chester, June 29-July, 1984, the following papers and seminars were presented.

"Sport, gender and society: a Transatlantic Victorian perspective", Dr. Roberta Park, University of California, Berkeley.

"The making and breaking of a female tradition : women's physical education in England, 1880-1980." Dr. Sheila Fletcher, Hertfordshire College of Higher Education.

"Playing like gentlemen while behaving like ladies: the contradictory features of the formative years of women's sport." Jennifer Hargreaves, Southlands College of Higher Education.

"Strong minds and weak bodies : sports, gymnastics and the medicalization of women's education in nineteenth century Britain and America". Dr. Paul Atkinson, University of Wales, Cardiff.

"Social emancipation of women through sport : the Soviet experience." Dr. James Riordan, University of Bradford.

"History Workshop : British Sports History - Prospects and problems." John Lowerson, University of Sussex.

The Future of Sports History : International Panel

Dr. Ray Crawford (Australia)
 Professor Marvin Eyler (U.S.A.)
 Dr. Tony Mason (United Kingdom)
 Professor Alan Metcalfe (Canada)
 Professor Roberta Park (U.S.A.)
 Dr. Joachim Ruhl (West Germany)