

Academic Theses Pertaining to Sport History

During The Sporting Traditions V conference an opportunity was given for higher degree students to share their current research ideas with delegates. This session was most useful to the researchers and facilitated a good exchange of ideas. Unfortunately, Sporting Traditions conference are biennial but perhaps the inclusion of the research topics of eminent students in the Bulletin will encourage members with comments and ideas to make direct contact.

ACADEMIC THESES PERTAINING TO SPORT HISTORY

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, UNIVERSITY OF NEW SOUTH WALES

B.A. Honours

Mark Doepel, 'The Beginning of Surfing at Manly Beach'
Lovella McCarthy, 'Lawn Bowls as a Mass participant Sport'

M.A. Honours

Geoff Dowsley, 'Swimming and Swim Coaching'

Ph.D.

Tom Hickie, 'Some aspects of Rugby in N.S.W.'
Jo Barnes, 'Some aspects of Women and the Olympics'

ECONOMIC HISTORY, FLINDERS UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN MOVEMENT STUDIES, UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND

B.A. Honours

Debra Bryant, 'The Professional Cricketer in Australia

Ph.D.

Thomas Armstrong, 'Sport as Public Policy, 1975-1983'.
Robert Dudley, 'Sport in the Moreton Bay District in the Colonial Period.'
Katharine Moore, 'The origin and development of the British Empire Games from 1891 to 1936'
Mary Lou O'Connor, ' Health in Australia in the colonial Period'.
Donna Rae, 'Class Structure and Ideology in Colonial Queensland Sport'
John Ross, 'sport as Popular Culture in Australia in the Nineteenth Century'.

Master of Human Movement Studies

Janice Brown, 'The Physical Education Branch of Victoria : An Historical Perspective'.

Bachelor of Human Movement Studies (Honours)

Maureen Nagel, 'Sport and Leisure in Australian Painting, 1850-1900.'
Murray Phillips, 'The Brisbane Golf Club ; A History.'

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND

B.A. (Honours)

William Deacon, 'The influence of Harry Hopman on Australian Tennis.'