

THE SPORTING TRADITIONS STUDENT ESSAY PRIZE

As announced in Sporting Traditions (Vol.2, No.1, November, 1985) this prize is awarded for quality essays in the general field of sport culture. Entrants were registered students at tertiary or secondary educational institutions in Australia and essays (2000-5000 words in length) had to be written in either 1984 or 1985.

The winner is Debra Bryant (Flinders University)

Runners up were: Michael Mrdak (University of New England)
Ian Byrne (University of New England)

The winning essay is published in this ASSH Bulletin. Debra Bryant receives $100 and both the winner and the runners-up receive a subscription to ASSH for 1986/87.

The judges were: Professor Colin Tatz, Dr. Richard Cashman, Dr. Ray Crawford, Dr. John Daly and Dr. John O'Hara.
