

SYDNEY SEMINARS ON SPORTS HISTORY - 1986

Richard Cashman has forwarded an outline of the 1986 Meetings at 18 Fisher's Reserve (off Palace St.,) Petersham at 7.30 p.m.

Meetings held:

February: Richard Cashman 'Problems and possibilities in writing a history of Australian sport'.

March: Ric Sissons 'The English Professional Cricketer in the Victorian Age'.

April: Colin Tatz 'South Africa, Jews and the Maccabi Games'.

May 13: Braham Dabscheck 'Industrial Relations in Sport: English Soccer'.

Future Program (to be confirmed)

Sept. 25: Mark Connellan 'Athleticism in Australia' (A discussion of his thesis on Sts. Joseph and Iganlius).

Oct. 30: Peter Shergold 'Convict Boxing'.

SPORTING TRADITIONS VI and VII

The A.S.S.H. Executive invites institutions and organisations interested in hosting the 1987 and 1989 Sporting Traditions conferences to register their interest on the form below and forward it to Dr. John O'Hara, School of General Studies, T.S.I.T., Box 1214, Launceston, Tas. 7250.

Organisation/institution
 Venue
 Contact Person
 Address

 Telephone No. Bus.

This organisation is interested in hosting the 1987 conference only the 1989 conference only

either conference

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS - HELP WANTED

Dobe Newton is currently researching music and Australian sport and would be grateful if members who could help with references, recollections, records etc., could contact him at 8 Auburn Avenue, Northcote, Victoria, 3070.

Ian Jobling and Pamela Barham have received a grant from the Australian Sports Commission to undertake research on Netball Australia: a socio-historical analysis. Any ASSH members who know of the whereabouts of people or materials which would be helpful, please contact Ian at the Department of Human Movement Studies, University of Queensland, St. Lucia, 4067.

SPORTING TRADITIONS VI, 1987

In an attempt to find the most suitable time for our 1987 conference we invite all members to complete the following form and send it to Dr. John O'Hara, School of General Studies, T.S.I.T., Box 1214, Launceston, TAS. 7250.

Please assume that the conference will be held over a three day period.

-
1. Please list the weeks (between 3 May and 30 August) during which you would like the conference to be held.

1st preference week beginning, Sunday.....

2nd preference week beginning, Sunday.....

3rd preference week beginning, Sunday.....

2. Please indicate any weeks during this period when you will be unable to attend.

Week beginning, Sunday.....

Week beginning, Sunday.....

Week beginning, Sunday.....

3. Please indicate on which day of the week (including weekends) you would prefer the conference to begin.

.....

NAME: (optional).....

ADDRESS/INSTITUTION

.....

.....

.....

Chris Harte, Chairman of the Australian Cricket Society Literary Award panel, presenting the Jack Pollard Trophy to Richard Cashman at the ASSH Sporting Traditions Conference, Adelaide in August 1985. The 1984-85 award was for the winner's book, 'Ave a Go, Yer Mug!'