

PRESENTATIONS AT THE AUSTRALIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION 1986 CONFERENCE, ADELAIDE

Papers pertaining to Sport History presented at the AHA Conference included:

Theme: Women's Fitness

Ray Crawford, Imitation, need, necessity: muscular Christianity for girls and the emergence of the sports mistress in the private schools of Melbourne.

Jill Julius Matthews, The Women's Keep Fit Movement, Britain, 1930-1939.

Theme: Sport and Social Class

Andrew Lemon, Class Complicity: the origins of Australian horseracing.

Bruce Rosen, Scaling the heights: British mountaineering in the Victorian era.

Theme: The underside of Sport

Chris Cuneen, Riots and the policing of leisure and sport: what has historical analysis to offer? A case study of the Bathurst motor cycle races.

B. J. de Garis, The Financial Basis of Australian Rules Football: a case study of the Swan Districts Club, 1934-1985.

Theme: Sport in the Victorian Era

David W. Brown, Prominent views on sport, physical exercise and society in Victorian Australia,

Wray Vamplew, Aspects of sport and community in nineteenth century South Australia.