

PUBLISHED CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

The Proceeding of the North American Society for Sport History Conference held at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, in 1986 have now been published. Titles of the abstracts are:

- Nancy L. Struna. The Research-Teaching Connection: Calvinist Preparation and the Graduate Realm
- Victoria Paraschak. Chaos in the Brickyard? So What! A Look at the Role of Theory in Research and Teaching
- Donald J. Mrozek. The Strange Case of Undergraduate Narcolepsy: Or Research That Didn't Belong in the Classroom
- Donald G. Kyle. Aristophanes and the Good Old Days
- Anthony J. Papalas. Sport Spectators in Ancient Greece
- Synthia S. Slowikowski. The Cultural Context of the Torch Race in Athens
- Gerald Redmond. Hockey in Canadian Fiction
- Michael Oriard. Jennifer Levin's Water Dancer and the Feminist Sport Novel
- Don Morrow. A Metaphor for Sport: Shakespeare's Use of Falconry in the Early Plays
- Louis U. Burgener. Swiss Military Cadets and Sports (1758-1907)
- Timothy J. L. Chandler. Cambridge University and the Development of Organized Sport: 1800-1860
- Peter Treadwell. The Demise of the Oxford and Cambridge Achilles Club (1920-1985)
- John Osborne. The British Sports Media During the First World War
- Mary McElroy. The Concept of the Professional "Player-Athlete" in Elizabethan and Jacobean England
- Richard Cashman. Writing a Biography of F. R. Spofforth 'The Demon' (1853-1926): Australia's First Cricket Folk Hero
- Don Morrow. Sweetheart Sport: Barbara Ann Scott and the Post World War Two Image of the Female Athlete in Canada
- Betty Spears. Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary
- Peggy Stanaland. Kentucky Women Choose a League: The Story of Their Participation in City Recreation Programs
- Angela Lumpkin. The Leisure Pursuits of North Carolina Upper-Class Women in the Twentieth Century
- Paula Welch. Wealthy Women Establish Country Club Sport in Florida
- Pamela F. Emory. Ada McKenzie: Golfer, Promoter, and Businesswoman

- Joan S. Hult. Portrait of Olympic Athletes as Role Models, Mentors and Leaders: Olympics 1920-1936
- Linda J. Borish. The Robust Woman and the Masculine Christian: Catherine Beecher, Thomas Higginson, and Their Vision of American Society, Health and Physical Activities
- Patricia Vertinsky. Exercise, Physical Capability and the Eternally Wounded Woman in 19th Century North America
- Donald J. Mrozek. The Limits of Science and the Appeal of Quackery
- Roberta J. Park. Hygienic and Educative: 19th Century Biology and the Rise of 'Modern' Physical Education
- James C. Morton. What the Big Boys Ate. The Food of Champions in the Golden Age of Sport
- Jan Todd. Bernarr MacFadden: Reformer of Feminine Form
- Dennis Brailsford. The First Sable Heroes - Blacks and the Regency Prize Ring
- Adolph H. Grundman. The Black Athletic Hero and the "American Dilemma"
- David K. Wiggins. Understanding the Black Sport Experience: Questions, Interpretations, and Approaches
- Richard Porter Preiss. Mashies at Mapledale: A Black Country Club in Massachusetts During the 1920's
- Robert Knight Barney. Sport Heroes in Cultural/Historical Context: The Cases of Jackie Robinson (The Bonafied) and Joe Louis (The Bogus)
- Steven A. Riess. Sport and White Ethnics in Chicago, 1860-1920
- Mary Lou LeCompte. Bowled Over: The Texas Turnvereins Quit Gymnastics
- Earle F. Zeigler. Professional Preparation Concerns of the Normal College of the American Gymnastic Union, 1866-1919
- Janice A. Beran. Turners in Iowa: Promoters of Fitness and Shapers of Culture
- Robert Knight Barney. Their Destiny Dictated: German-American Turnvereins and Socio - Politico - Economic Realities in the Deep South During the Antebellum and Civil War Periods - A Case Study of New Orleans, Louisiana Turners
- John M. Carroll. Abner Doubleday Strikes Out Again: The Origins of Baseball in Southeast Texas
- Albert J. Figone. John McGraw: His Influence in the Development of Scientific Baseball
- David Q. Voigt. They Shaped the Game: A Team of Baseball Innovators
- Anthony J. Papalas. Ty Cobb - An Incompetent Manager?

- Clyde Partin. Hack Wilson: Early Superstar - Late Tragedy
- Ronald F. Briley. Baseball and the Cold War
- Samuel Regalado. Speak English Coach: Preston Gomez of the Spokane Indians
- Roberta J. Park. The Debates Between Harvard and Yale Begin
- Jay Helman. Pre-NCAA Eligibility: Not Academic Concerns
- Ronald A. Smith. The Harvard-Yale Dual League Plan of the 1890's: A Failure of Elitism
- Albert J. Figone. The 1981 College Basketball Gambling Scandals: An Examination of the Role of College Officials
- David Zang. Redefining Athletic Excellence in the 1960's
- John E. Findling. University and College Sport Histories: Survey and Analysis
- Mary Lou Gust. John Mariucci: Godfather of American Hockey
- John Dewar. Edmonton's Hockey Heritage
- Anne Tilley. Enter the Canadian Mentally Handicapped Participant: 1950-1980
- Barbara Schrodtt. "Taking the Tram": Travelling to Sport and Recreation Activities on Greater Vancouver's Interurban Railway - 1890's to 1920'S
- Thomas B. Littlewood. Arch Ward and his New Professional Football League
- Joan M. Chandler. Televised Football: The Past Writ Large
- Harold L. Ray. The Cityscapists' Legacy: Realism, Recreation or Social History?
- John D. Fair. The York Barbell Company and the Golden Age of American Weightlifting. 1945-1960
- Terry Todd. Anabolic Steroids - The Gremlins of Sport
- Thomas L. Altherr. Mallards and Messerschmitts: American Hunting Magazines and the World War II War Effort
- Ralph C. Wilcox. "W.G." and "John L." Cultural Conflict and Resolution Through Sport
- Bruce L. Bennett. Physical Education at Its Best - The Naval Aviation V-5 Pre-Flight Program
- David McComb. The Founding of the Olympic Training Centers and the Technology of Sport

BRITISH SOCIETY OF SPORTS HISTORY
CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

A limited number of copies of the Proceedings of the British Society of Sports History annual conferences are available for purchase.

Year	Conference Theme	Venue	Price
1983	Society, Religion and Sport	University of Keele	£2
1984	Women, Sport and History	Chester College	£ 2
1985	Sport and National Identity	Jordanhill College	£5

Send your order to:

Derek Benning, Department of Geography and Recreation Studies, North Staffordshire Polytechnic, Leek Road, Stoke on Trent, Staffordshire, ST4 2DF

Cheques should be made payable to British Society of Sports History. Please add 50p(UK) or £1.50(abroad) postage costs per item required.