

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS - HELP WANTED

Perry Charles HARDY, Department of History, James Cook University of North Queensland is undertaking an M.A. on the topic "A Centennial History of North Queensland Racing Association, 1856-1986" and would like to exchange information, views and opinions with others working in the horse-racing field, in particular, those who have knowledge of the history of any of Australia's principal racing clubs.