

PRIZES AND AWARDS

ASSH STUDENT PRIZES

These prizes are for quality work by tertiary or secondary students in the general field of sports culture. Appropriate areas of focus are: sport and economics, sport in history, law, literature, philosophy, politics, social psychology and sociology. Sports culture and tradition should be seen as being broad, not confined.

The ASSH Dissertation Prize is awarded to an Honours thesis written within the past 3 years. One (returnable) copy should be submitted. The prize is $100 and a one year's subscription to ASSH. The winning dissertation may be published as an ASSH Study in Sports History.

The ASSH Essay Prize is awarded to an essay written within the past 2 years. The maximum length is 4,000 words and two copies should be submitted. The prize is $100 and a one year subscription to ASSH. Other prizes may be awarded at the discretion of the judging panel. The winning essay will be published in the ASSH Bulletin.

All entries should be sent to Dr. Wray Vamplew, Economic History Discipline, The Flinders University of South Australia, Bedford Park, South Australia 5042. The deadline for submission is 19 December each year.

THE ABERDARE ESSAY PRIZE

The British Society of Sports History is pleased to announce the institution of a prize essay on any aspect of sports history. A sum of 50 pounds has been generously donated by Lord Aberdare. The competition will be an annual one and open to all bona fide students. Essays should be 8000 words long.

The closing date for submission will be 31st December each year.

The Executive Committee of the Society will judge the essays which should be sent to:
