

Australian Society for Sports history – Regional Seminars

Sydney Chapter

'Tom Brock Seminar Series'

Venue Rm 303 Morven Brown Building
University of New South Wales
6.30pm
Drinks and Meal afterwards at The Royal Randwick

16 March: Maree Murray, Dept. Economics, University of Wollongong
'Re-presenting Shane Gould': Images and Representations of Female Sports Stars

20 April: Anthony Hughes, Centre for Olympic Studies University of New South Wales,
'Treated with the utmost courtesy and care ...': The 1904-1905 New South Wales- New Zealand Soccer tours.

18 May: John O'Hara, Dean Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences University of Western Sydney – Macarthur
'Publicans and Sport in 19th Century Aust.'

15 June: Pete Yeend, The Kings School,
'Enrolments, Sport and Independent Schools'

Melbourne Chapter

The new conveners of the ASSH Seminar Series in Melbourne are Dave Nadel and Matthew Nicholson. If you are interested in either attending or presenting at this monthly meeting, please contact either Dave on (03) 9375 4826 or Matthew on (03) 9579 4334, as they are currently putting together the program.

*NEW Bathurst Chapter

John Nauright is interested in starting an ASSH regional chapter in the Bathurst region for semi-regular meetings beginning in 2000. Please contact him after 10 January on (02) 6338 4417, or on email jnauright@csu.edu.au if you are interested.