

THE BASEBALL MAGAZINE

VOLUME II

NUMBER 2

DECEMBER, 1908

Entire contents of this magazine are copyrighted and must not be reprinted without permission

The Aftermath	Jacob C. Morse	1
Illustrations from Photographs
How I Tried to Get Into the Polo Grounds	Albert G. Spalding	7
Baseball in Auld Lang Syne	Exra Kendall	10
Illustrations from Photographs
Who's Who in Baseball		13
How Yale Deals With Beef and Brains	John J. Mack	15
Illustration from Photograph
The Defect in Football	Pres. Charles W. Eliot	17
Illustrations from Photographs
"Lub" Taft, Outfielder	Harry Ellard	20
The Big Eight	Arthur P. Young	21
Illustrations from Photographs
Chance, of the Chicago Champs	James C. Gilruth	24
Illustrations from Photographs
The Sphinx Answers		27
Walter Camp, Maker of Watches and Football Players	H. M. Sedgwick	29
Illustration from Photograph
Athletics at Pennsylvania	Frederick E. MacMillan	31
Illustration from Photograph
The Imp Interferes (Fiction)	Stuart B. Stone	33
Illustrations by George Axlen
The Increased Value of the Kicking Game	Walter Camp	39
Illustrations from Photographs
Dartmouth as a Football Factor	Louis A. Dougher	41
Illustrations from Photographs
Football in the Middle West	Walter H. Eckersall	43
Illustrations from Photographs
Intercollegiate Athletics		45
Editorial Comment		49
The R-U-A-Fan Club		51
Among Ourselves		54
The Psychology of the Football Game	Frederick Coburn	55
Between Innings (Humorous)		59
The 1908 Spirit in Football	Joseph B. Pendleton	61
Illustration from Photograph
Fans We Know (Verse)	W. Livingston Larned	63

Issued Monthly the Year Round Yearly Subscription $1.50 in Advance Canadian Subscriptions $2.00 Single Copy 15 Cents
Send Money by Money Order or Certified Check Only

PUBLISHED BY

THE BASEBALL MAGAZINE COMPANY

JACOB C. MORSE President

R. F. POTTS Secretary

88 BROAD STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

FRANK H. BIRCH, Treasurer

New York Advertising Representative

Ralph D. Whiting, 3 Beekman Street

St. Louis and Kansas City Advertising Representative, S. M. Goldberg

St. Louis Office, 342 Pierce Building

Kansas City Office, 402 Century Building

Copyright, 1908, by The Baseball Magazine Company

Entered at Boston Post Office as Second Class Matter