

THE BASEBALL MAGAZINE

VOLUME III

NUMBER 1

MAY, 1909

Entire contents of this magazine are copyrighted and must not be reprinted without permission

Philadelphia and Baseball Illustrations from Photographs	Jacob C. Morse	1
When I Played the Game Illustrations from Photographs	John L. Sullivan	9
In the Phillies' New Training Camp	Edward L. Grant	13
Tales From the Southland Illustration from Photograph	Albert H. C. Mitchell	15
John T. Brush—A Power in Baseball Illustration from Photograph	John B. Foster	17
Exercise—The Fountain of Youth Illustrations from Photographs	Mrs. Leslie Carter	21
Looking On	Jacob C. Morse	24
The Girl Who Won the Game Drawings by Gibson A. Shay	Nicholas J. Flatley	27
The Sphinx Answers		34
Who's Who on the Diamond		35
Afield and Afloat		37
Some Canadian Fishing Waters Illustrations from Photographs	S. E. Sangster
The First Shoot of a "Goose" Hunter Illustrations from Photographs	Orel R. Geyer
From My Diary Illustration from Photograph	John Coombs	47
Baseball From the Outside Drawing by Gibson A. Shay	Homer Croy	49
Intercollegiate Athletics Illustrations from Photographs		51
Between Innings		59
Short Lengths		61
Baseball and Georgia	Alex Lynn
A First-Water Fan	Paul H. Bruske
War in the West	Al. H. Martin
All About Sporting Goods		66
The R-U-A-Fan Club		68

Issued Monthly the Year Round Yearly Subscription $1.50 in Advance Canadian Subscription $2.00 Single Copy 15 Cents
Send Money by Money Order or Certified Check Only

THE BASEBALL MAGAZINE COMPANY

JACOB C. MORSE President R. F. POTTS Secretary
New York Office, St. James Building, 1133 Broadway
John F. Murphy, Manager

158 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

FRANK H. BIRCH, Treasurer
Chicago Advertising Representative
W. S. Cluff, 140 Dearborn Street

Kansas City Advertising Representative, S. M. Goldberg
Kansas City Office, 505 Reliance Building
Copyright, 1909, by The Baseball Magazine Company