A TIP TO BIG LEAGUE MANAGERS

Up in the Bronx (N. Y. City) made famous by Dick Rudolph, is a school boy who, if he continues at his present gait, will be in the big leagues before he is out of his teens. Anyone that glances over his record for the past summer will have to admit that with proper coaching this boy should develop into another Rudolph or Alexander.

Jim Hippie, which is the name of our hero, is 17 years old, stands 5 ft. 10 in. and weighs 165 lbs. Generally playing with a scrub team behind him, he has beaten the Cuban Giants, Almendares of Cuba, Pittsburgs, Giants and a number of strong semi-pro teams in Greater New York and New Jersey. In his last three games he has had 42 strike outs in 26 innings. Sunday, October 10th, against the Stillson Athletic Club, he allowed one hit and struck out 14. Another feat he performed this summer was taking two out of three games from the strong steam of the N. Y. Athletic Club on their home grounds at Travers Island. Watch this bird.
