

LA84

Foundation

FEDERAL LEAGUE PLAYERS

Ban Johnson's clubs seem to shy away from the Federals like men walking round a swamp. There seems to be some tacit even if unwritten agreement to keep off the players of the Vanished League, and the agreement is being obeyed by everybody excepting Messrs. Ruppert and Huston. Their situation is an exceptional one. Ban Johnson and the rest of the American League leaders are anxious to have an American League team prosper in New York; certain Federals looked as if they would be of material assistance in this idea, and so the New York Americans went after them. Unquestionably Lee Magee will bring much-needed help in batting, base-running and fielding, no matter what position they play him in, while Cullop will furnish high-class port-side pitching.

(Concluded on page 122)

FEDERAL LEAGUE PLAYERS

(Concluded from page 120)

Here's how the Federal reinforcements size up, as per the official figures:

Player and New Club	Bat.	SB.	Pitching
			Fldg.	Pct.
Konetchy, 1b, Boston	310	29	994	. . .
Allen, p, Boston.	079	0	950	639
Knetzer, p, Boston. 130	0		968	563
Yerkes, 2b, Chicago.	286	18	972	. . .
Seaton, p, Chicago. 225	3		970	452
Huhn, c, 1b, Cincinnati	227	11	c980	. . .
			1b985
Louden, inf, Cincinnati	280	29	2b976	. . .
			3b974
			ss910
Esmond, ss, Cincinnati	258	17	936	. . .
Anderson, lf, Cincinnati	259	20	956	. . .
Schultz, p, Cincinnati	157	1	981	600
Moseley, p, Cincinnati	148	1	957	500
Kauff, of, New York	344	54	962	. . .
Rousch, of, New York	298	30	977	. . .
Anderson, p, New York	148	0	947	594
Rariden, c, New York	278	7	978	. . .
Bender, p, Philadelphia.	233	0	935	200
Smith, ss, Pittsburgh.	210	7	898	. . .
Moran, p, Pittsburgh	175	0	917	591
Magee, 2b, N. Y. American	330	37	939	. . .
Cullop, p, N. Y. American	187	0	964	667
Schaefer, c o m e - d i a n, N. Y. American	214	3	950	. . .

