

BASEBALL

MAGAZINE

IN THIS ISSUE :

SEVENTEEN MONTHS WITH THE DOUGH BOYS
—Col. T. L. Huston

THE INS AND OUTS OF BATTING
—Tris Speaker

A SCHEME THAT BEATS THE WORLD'S SERIES—Arthur Irwin

WHAT ARE THE ODDS?—F. C. Lane

IS BASEBALL OVERWRITTEN?—Charles W. Murphy

WILL THERE BE A THIRD MAJOR LEAGUE?—Warren W. Brown

BASEBALL'S GREATEST PINCH HITTER
—C. F. Sawyer

WHY GOOD PITCHERS ARE EASY TO HIT—Rogers Hornsby

WHY I BECAME A BASEBALL MAGNATE
—G. W. Grant

LIEUT. COL. T. L. HUSTON

of the 16th Engineers, part owner of the New York Yankees, the first man identified with professional baseball to enlist for service overseas

April
15c

NOTICE TO READER:
When you finish reading this magazine, place a U. S. 1-cent stamp on this notice, mail the magazine, and it will be placed in the hands of our soldiers or sailors destined to proceed overseas. NO WRAPPING—NO ADDRESS.
A. S. Burtleson,
Postmaster General.

BASEBALL PROSPECTS GREATLY IMPROVE