

Sideline Chatter

"Story on the 'Blue Ghosts' was outstanding. I grew up in the late 30's on Cal and St Mary's. Hibner's article on Buck Shaw was most appreciated. Amen to your editorial on page six of Nov issue. The position taken by the editorial staff as to their goals is well stated. This is why your publication is outstanding and a must for any fan. There is so much history on college football that is unknown, or facts are distorted..."

"Thanks for including that picture of 'The Sizeable Seven' on page 7 of the November 1988 issue."

"The special editorial that you ran in the 11/88 issue was elegant: topically relevant, compressing several vital points, and very tactful in dealing with the standard kinds of problems still accepted in published writings on college football. Thanks for writing it."

"Enjoyed your article on the Purdue Marines, being a staunch Purdue fan. I play tennis with a retired group of men called the 'Silver Foxes'. Among the players are Billy Hillenbrand, Indiana All-American tailback in 1942, and Mike Layden, Notre Dame halfback, one of the stars of the Ohio State upset of 1935 and a former Big Ten official."
