

Sideline Chatter

"I would like to present a question to Society members. When did the practice of running out of bounds to conserve time begin (what year was the rule instituted and when did teams start to really use the rule)?"

- Stan Grosshandler, 4905 Richland Drive, Raleigh, N.C. 27612

"It was enjoyable to read about Jackie Jensen and Cal in the last issue."

-Dick Beverage, Placentia, Cal.

"I'm conducting a crusade to correct as many errors as possible found in media guides, score books and college histories. Anyone willing to devote some spare time in his local metropolitan or university library to help accomplish this goal is welcome. Please write if you'd like to participate."

- Bob Royce, 2288 Highland Vista, Arcadia, Cal. 91006

"I enjoyed the article on the rules changes of 1910. I wonder if any motion pictures of football were taken then -- what a thrill they would be. One rule change never seems to be included in the handful of truly significant ones -- the change in 1888 allowing tackling from waist to knees. It turned a rough game into a violent one."

- Phil Allen, Berkeley, Cal.