

SOCKER STARS?

SLUGGING AN OPPONENT IS BAD ENOUGH. SLUGGING AN OFFICIAL? IT HAS HAPPENED!

DAYTON GUARD DON MILLS,

IN THE 1948 THANKSGIVING DAY GAME

VS CHATTANOOGA,

BLOODIED

THE NOSE OF HEAD LINESMAN FRANK JONES! (JONES REQUIRED A BLOOD TRANSFUSION AT A LOCAL HOSPITAL.)

FOOTBALL BY ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Grinnell Defeats Drake by Score of 6 to 5 - Visiting Player Knocks Out Referee in the Dark.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 5.—[Special.]—Grinnell College defeated Drake University by 6 to 5 in the first football game of the season here tonight. The game was played by electric light. The Drakes team was slightly heavier than Grinnell, but Grinnell was stronger in the line. Three times in the first half Grinnell drove down the field. Both teams were slow. A Drake player struck W. R. Lane, the referee, after the game and knocked him senseless. Linen Grinnell.

Grinnell	Drake
R. O. Collins	R. O. Collins
Plum Burroughs	Plum Burroughs
Collins Reese	Collins Reese
Smith Stewart	Smith Stewart
Marsh Kinney	Marsh Kinney
D. Evans Jordan	D. Evans Jordan
E. Evans Clark	E. Evans Clark
Welker Bates	Welker Bates
Lyman Pell	Lyman Pell
Flak. Sharp	Flak. Sharp
Bacon	Bacon
Clinton	Clinton
Time of halves	Time of halves
Touchdown—Lyman	Touchdown—Lyman
Goal	Goal

IN THE 1926 ARMY GAME, "SKINNY" BAYSINGER OF SYRACUSE COLDCKOKED THE REFEREE, CAUSING A LONG-TERM BREAK BETWEEN THE TWO SCHOOLS!

THAT'S A "NO-NO"! By Rob Royce