

Occasional Papers in Football Studies

Volume One Number One
January 1998

Contents

Editorial Preface

Articles

- TV Made It All a New Game: Not Again! - Rugby League and the Case of Super League in England
Mark Falcous, Queen's University 4
- From Old Soldiers to Old Youth: Political Leadership and Aotearoa/
New Zealand's 1981 Springbok Rugby Tour
Malcolm MacLean, University of Queensland 22
- A Foreign Sport Going National and Local: Historical Perspectives on Identity-Building and Football at the Local and National Level in Norway in the Twentieth Century
Matti Goksøyr, Norwegian University of Sport Physical Education 37
- Footscray, Identity and Football History
Chris McConville, Sunshine Coast University College 48
- ### Viewpoint
- What is a Football Community?
Dave Nadel, Monash University 59
- ### Research Essays
- Tommy Raudonikis, Western Suburbs Rugby League Team and the Working Class of Campbelltown, New South Wales
Drew Cottle, University of Western Sydney 69
- Rugby in the Prisoner-of-War Camps of the Anglo-Boer War
Floris J.G. van der Merwe, University of Stellenbosch 76
- ### Conference Announcements
- 84