

Occasional Papers in Football Studies

Volume One Number Two, August 1998

Contents

Editorial Preface	3
Articles
Ungentlemanly Conduct: Football Hooligans, the Media and the Construction of Notoriety Richard Giulianotti and Gary Armstrong University of Aberdeen and University of Reading	4
Global Processes and the Rugby Union World Cup Brett Hutchins, University of Queensland	34
Sweet FA: Fans' Rights and Club Relocations in England Wray Vamplew, John Coyle, Julie Heath and Brian Naysmith De Montfort University	55
Offside: The Development of Women's Football in Austria Matthias Marschik University of Vienna	69
An Historical Identity: Historians and the Making of Irish Nationalist Identity in the Gaelic Athletic Association Michael Cronin, De Montfort University	89
Viewpoint
The Transformation of 'Community' in the Australian football League. Part One: Towards a Conceptual Framework for 'Community' Ian Andrew, University of Sydney	103
Essay
Australian Women Form a League of Their Own: The Victorian Women's Australian Football League Kate Lawrence, Victorian Women's Australian Football League	115
Book Reviews
Tony Adams, Masters of the Game: Coaches Who Shaped Rugby League. (Charles Little)	123
P Freeman, Ian Roberts: Finding Out. (Murray Drummond)	124
Simon Kelner, To Jerusalem and Back (Mark Falcous)	126
Garry Linnell, Football Ltd: The Inside Story of the AFL (Bob Stewart)	128
Conference Announcements	131