Around Philadelphia

That Mrs. Barlow is the best medallist in the country, although she does not always play her best in a tight match.

In Golfing Circles

That every important championship in the world, including that of the United States, Britain, Canada, England, Scotland, Ireland and India was won by a new champion last year.

The Same

That it is extremely unlikely that the same thing will happen this season.

At Oakmont

That Miss Louise Elkins has as many shots in her bag as any player in the country, but suffers from an unfortunate inability to bring them out in the important tournaments away from her own club.

In the Reading Room

That the venue of this year's British Women's Championship is spelled Hunstanton, but, after the extraordinary English fashion, is pronounced Hunsdon.

Around Philadelphia

That Miss Ethel Campbell ought to do well in the local tournaments this summer after her fine performance of tying with Miss Hyde in the qualifying round of the Florida Championship.

In San Francisco

That Miss Edith Cheseborough, who won the Californian Championship recently, is not only a good golfer, but a sound writer on golfing subjects.

In the East

That the election of Miss Elizabeth Porter, Mrs. E. H. Fidler and Mrs. Swift as the nominating committee of the Eastern Women's Golf Association has given universal satisfaction.

In British Columbia

That Miss Violet Pooley's win in the British Columbian Championship was very popular.

The Same

That her record now equals that of Miss Mabel Thomson, who was five times Champion of Canada, and of Miss May Hezlett, who was five times Champion of Ireland.

At Ranelagh

That it was chiefly owing to Miss Cecil Leitch's marvelous score of 67 that England won the International Cup.

Everywhere

That Miss Muriel Dodd, who made so many friends at Wilmington last fall, is to be congratulated on her engagement to Mr. Macbeth, himself a golfer.

Around New York

That the chances of both Boston and Philadelphia are pretty strong for the Griscom Cup.

MIDAS.

OVERHEARD

In the East

That the Boston Association has arranged a very interesting programme of events for this season.

Around New York

That Miss Lillian Hyde is playing a fine game and is expected to finish far up in the National tournament this year.

Everywhere

That Miss Gladys Ravenscroft enjoyed every minute of her visit to America and hopes to return to defend her title in September.

The Same

That she says that Miss Muriel Dodd is a better player, which opinion is generally put down to her natural modesty.

In Ottawa

That the Duchess of Connaught has presented a cup for the Canadian Championship.

The Same

That the last Championship Cup was won outright by Mrs. J. V. Hurd who held it for three successive years as Miss Dorothy Campbell.
