
The Misused Word
"Championship"

A golf tournament is not entitled to be called a "championship" unless the event is conducted under the auspices of a National, State, or District Golf Association. The exceptions are club championships and inter-collegiate events.