

BOOK REVIEWS

No book reviews are being included in this issue, although with the Games in Barcelona this year, there will be a number of books which we will review next issue, including Buchanan's book on British Olympians, and Wallechinsky's third edition.

Ian Buchanan and I would accept any books you have for review in the newsletter. We will then send them to members of the executive committee for them to review in Citius, Altius, Fortius.