John Lucas - Olympic Lecturer

In the spring of 1993, the President of the International Olympic Committee, Juan Antonio Samaranch, designated John A. Lucas, Ph.D., of The Pennsylvania State University as "Official Olympic Lecturer." In a single calendar year, Professor Lucas has travelled to 21 states, 31 cities, 19 universities, two dozen public schools, and several philanthropic/civic/professional, and business organizations . . . to a total of approximately 6,000 people. He would be pleased to speak on "The Olympic Games and The Olympic Movement - Past, Present, and Future."

There will be no honoraria required and no travel expenses of any kind by those inviting him, except for hotel accommodations. Dr. Lucas is making arrangements for 1995 and 1996. He may be contacted at:

School: The Pennsylvania State University, 105 White Building, University Park, PA 16802 USA. Telephone: (814)-865-2417; FAX: (814)-863-7360.

Home: 618 South Fraser Street, State College, PA 16801 USA. Telephone: (814)-238-3623.

Back Issues of Citius, Altius, Fortius: The ISOH Journal

Back issues of Citius, Altius, Fortius: The ISOH Journal are available to members who have joined after the first year. However, because we are now depleting our supply of these original journals, we have been forced to have them re-printed. Because of the cost involved in this, all future requests for back issues will be honored only with a payment of $7.50 (US) per issue.
