

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The North American Society for Sport History will hold its annual conference at the same time as the meetings of the Organization of American Historians at the Statler Hilton Hotel, April 16-19, 1975, in Boston Massachusetts. For information concerning the presentation of papers write to Professor Guy M. Lewis, Program Chairman, Department of Sport Studies, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts 01002.

The Association for the Anthropological Study of Play is pleased to announce its formation. Persons interested in information or membership ($10.00 July 1 -June 30, $5.00 for students) should contact Professor Alyce Cheska, Secretary-Treasurer, Department of Physical Education, 113 Freer Gymnasium, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois 61801. Currently, the organization produces a newsletter which will be distributed to those interested. Future plans concern a publication and an annual meeting.

The World Scientific Congress "Sport in Modern Society" will be held November 25-December 1, 1974 in Moscow, U.S.S.R.

A registry of Sport Historians has been established at the University of Massachusetts/Amherst. Its purpose is to bring into contact sport historians who are available for lecture dates or term appointments with institutions that are desirous of having the services they can offer. The Registry presently has information on 18 sport historians, including their travel plans for the 1974-75 academic year. For additional information please write to Professor Guy M. Lewis, Department of Sport Studies, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts 01002.

Two distinguished foreign sport historians are currently living or traveling in the United States and will accept speaking engagements, Professor Horst Ueberhorst from Germany was named to the position of Distinguished Visiting Professor of Sport History at the University of Massachusetts/Amherst and will spend the fall semester 1974 there. Harold Seymour, best known for his definitive two-volume history Baseball and now living in Ireland, is also temporarily located in the United States. For more information on their travel plans please write to Professor Guy Lewis, Department of Sport Studies, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts 01002.

The North American Society for Sport History is currently collecting information pertaining to the study and teaching of sport history by means of a survey. This "Survey of Scholars Identifying with the History of Sport" will be enclosed in the Proceedings mailed to each member. The information will be tabulated and then distributed to each participating member. For additional information or more survey sheets please write to Jack W. Berryman, Advertising and Publicity Manager - NASSH, Department of Physical Education, University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland 20742.

The Fourth International HISPA (International Association for the History of Physical Education and Sport) Seminar will be held April 2-5, 1975, at Louvain, Belgium. For additional information write to Dr. R. Renson, Instituut voor Lichamelijke Opleiding, Tervuurse Vest 101, B3030 Heverlee/Belgium.

Note-Items to be considered for publication under "Announcements" should be submitted to Jack W. Berryman, Advertising and Publicity Manager - NASSH, Department of Physical Education, University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland 20742.