The Fourth Canadian Symposium on the History of Sport and Physical Education will be held June 24-26, 1979 on the campus of the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, British Columbia. For information concerning the program and presentation of papers write: Barbara Schrodt, School of Physical Education & Recreation, Osborne Centre, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6T 1W5.

A symposium focusing on psychological, sociological, historical and philosophical research as it contributes to an understanding of the Olympic Games will be held at Skidmore College, February 8-10, 1980. Original theoretical and empirical research papers will be considered for presentation and publication. The goal of the Symposium will be the development of a social philosophy by which the Olympics may be studied and hopefully guided. Therefore papers are sought which address themselves not only to the problems that face the Olympics but also their plausible solution.

For program information or to submit papers, please write Jeffrey O. Segrave or Donald Chu, Department of Physical Education and Dance, Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, New York 12866. Deadline for submission of papers is September 1, 1979. Please forward 2 copies of the paper, 2 copies of a 500 word abstract and 2 self-addressed stamped envelopes.

Featured speakers include Sir Roger Bannister, John W. Loy, John A. Lucas, Rainer Martens, Eleanor Metheny, and Robert G. Osterhoudt.
