SPORTING TRADITIONS

THE JOURNAL OF THE AUSTRALIAN SOCIETY FOR SPORTS HISTORY

Why not join the Australian Society for Sports History? An annual subscription of $15 ($10 for registered students) entitles you to two issues of Sporting Traditions plus periodic newsletters.

Sporting Traditions will present a serious view of sport in Society. Articles will deal with the economic, political, social, legal and philosophical significance of sporting activity. Generally articles will feature Australian sport but not exclusively so. Most of them will have an historical focus, but contemporary issues will also be discussed. There will be an opportunity for comments and criticisms from readers. There will also be an extensive book review section.

The first issues are scheduled for November 1984 and June 1985. Articles will include:

- | | |
|---------------------|--|
| Colin Tatz, | Race, Politics and Sport. |
| Chris McConville, | Football, Liquor and Gambling in the 1920s. |
| Ray Crawford, | Sport for Young Ladies: The Victorian Independent Schools 1875-1925. |
| Bob Stewart, | Wage Payments in the V.F.L. |
| Barry Andrews, | Sports Review for 1984. |
| Bob Paddick, | The Relations Between Sport and Politics. |
| Virginia O'Farrell, | The Unanswered Questions in Australian Tennis. |

The Editorial Board comprises:

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| Editor | Wray Vamplew, Economic History, Flinders University. |
| Associate Editors | Brian Stoddart, Sports Studies, Canberra C.A.E.,
Ian Jobling, Human Movement Studies, University of Queensland |
| Reviews Editor | Richard Cashman, History, University of New South Wales. |
