

Announcements

THE ASSOCIATION FOR THE ANTHROPOLOGICAL STUDY OF PLAY. TASSP will hold its 1986 meeting jointly with the Western Humor and Irony meeting March 29-April 1, Arizona State University, Tempe, Ariz. Send abstracts by September 15 for consideration for presentation to Prof. Frank Manning, Dept. of Anthropology, Western Ontario University, London, Ont. Canada, N6A-5C2.

“PERSONS, MINDS AND BODIES: A TRANSCULTURAL DIALOGUE AMONGST PHYSICAL EDUCATION, PHILOSOPHY AND THE SOCIAL SCIENCES”: A Symposium to be held at the University of Ottawa, May 7-10, 1986. Sub-themes include 1) The Nature of Education and Learning in Physical Education; 2) Alternate Views of Human Nature and Their Implications for Physical Education; 3) Physical Education and Knowledge; 4) Physical Education/Sport and Aesthetics; 5) Physical Education/Sport and Values; 6) Physical Education and the Social Sciences. For further information, please contact Prof. Saul Ross, Dept. of Physical Education, University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Ont., Canada K1N 6N5.

Men's Studies: New Perspectives on Masculinity: A call for papers for a forthcoming anthology to be published by a major academic press. Papers must be received by December 1, 1985. Papers received by November 1 may also be considered for a special issue of the Journal of the National Association for Women Deans, Administrators, and Counsetors (Spring 1986). Please send inquiries and papers to Harry Brod, Program for the Study of Women and Men in Society, Taper Hall 331M, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, Calif., 90089-4352.

GRADUATE STUDENT ESSAY CONTEST: NASSH announces its second Annual Graduate Student Essay Contest. A NASSH Scholarship will be given the author of a student paper chosen by a panel of judges. The best essay will be read by the author at the 1986 Convention, held at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B.C., in May. Expenses (round-trip economy airfare within North America, accommodations, meals, convention registration) for the conference and membership in NASSH for 1986 will be paid to the winner. Requirements: Candidates are required to submit by January 1, 1986 four copies of a 3,000-4,000 word essay in sport history (double spaced with end notes) to: Prof. J. Thomas Jable, Dept. of Movement Science, William Paterson College, Wayne, NJ 07444. The winning manuscript must be submitted to the Journal of Sport History for possible publication. The 1985 prize was awarded to Catriona B. Parratt, University of Windsor, for her essay, “Sport and Hegemony: Windsor c. 1895-c. 1929.”