

Editor's Comments

I am pleased to announce that the Fall 2000 issue of the Journal will focus on "Gender, Ethnicity, and Sport." This special issue, co-edited by Gerald Gems and Linda Borish, includes essays by well-known academicians from North America and Europe. This will be the last special issue published during my tenure as editor.

I would like to acknowledge errors made in the captions for the two photographs included in Rita Liberti's article "We Were Ladies, We Just Played Basketball Like Boys" in the previous issue of the Journal. The photograph on page 572 of Professor Liberti's essay is courtesy of the Greensboro Historical Museum; the photograph on page 576 is courtesy of Ruth Glover Mullen. Our apologies to Professor Liberti, Ms. Mullen and the Greensboro Historical Museum.
