It was MOVED (Kevin Jones) and seconded that the Constitution of NASSH, Article V, Section 2 be amended with the following words: “. . . and ex-officio members from related organizations as approved by the Council.” (The appropriate sentence in Section would thus read: “The Council shall consist of the officers of the society and the immediate past President and ex-officio members from related organizations as approved by the Council.”) PASSED (Unanimously).

The question of nominations for the 1973 elections was brought up. Guy Lewis withdrew from the nomination as President. Mary Lou Remley withdrew from the nomination as Secretary-Treasurer. Ron Smith withdrew from the nomination as Editor.

John Lucas suggested that the 1975 convention be held in Eastern or Midwestern United States and the 1976 convention be in the Olympic City of Montreal.

Guy Lewis suggested that we should consider holding a meeting in conjunction with the American Historical Association or the Organization of American Historians.

It was agreed that Edwin B. Henderson and Seward C. Staley be made Honorary Presidents of NASSH.

Marv Eyler brought up the question of the possibility of publishing a journal. He was concerned about quality control and the need for adequate membership to support it financially.
