

Publication of a NASSH Journal

Beginning in the Spring, 1974, the North American Society for Sport History will publish a sport history journal titled the Journal of Sport History, edited by Alan Metcalfe of the University of Windsor, Ontario. It will be published at Radford College, Virginia with technical help from the Department of History headed by Margaret Woodhouse. The journal will include illustrated articles and will be based in part on the format of the English publication, History Today. At present the journal will be published semi-annually in the Spring and Fall. It will be of great value to NASSH for each member of NASSH to ask college and school libraries as well as public libraries to subscribe to the journal by becoming a member of NASSH. Membership in NASSH includes the journal, Proceedings, and periodic newsletters.
