

NASSH 1975 Program Announcement

The program of the Third Annual Convention held in Boston April 16-19, 1975 will consist of three kinds of sessions: (1) those devoted to specific and pre-determined topics, (2) general or open, (3) panel discussion. Persons desiring a place on the program should be guided by the following instructions:

1. Specific topics

Submit an abstract or completed manuscript directly to the chairperson prior to November 1, 1974. If an invitation to present is extended on the basis of an abstract, the completed manuscript must be made available to the Chairperson no later than February 1, 1975. Topics and chairpersons for these sessions are as follows:

“Baseball and the Academic Historian”

Professor Eugene Murdock, Department of History,
Marietta College, Marietta, Ohio, 45750.

“Colonials at Play”

Professor June A. Kennard, Dept. of Physical Education
Burdick Hall, Towson State College
Baltimore, MD 21204

“Crew and Other Intercollegiate Sports”

Professor Margaret Woodhouse, Department of History,
Redford College, Redford, Virginia, 24141.

“Sport and Social Class in Canada and the United States”

Dr. J. Thomas West, Historian, Fitness and Amateur Sport Branch, Department of Health and Welfare, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada.

2. General or Open Sessions

Submit a copy of an abstract or completed manuscript to each of the following Chairpersons prior to November 1, 1974 (a total of six (6) submissions):

Professor Betty Spears, Department of Sport Studies Hicks Building,
University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts, 01002.

Professor Gerald Redmond, Faculty of Physical Education, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

Professor Alexander Young, School of Physical Education, Dalhousie
University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada.

Professor Paul R. Mills, Department of Physical Education, Marion College,
Marion, Indiana 46925.

Professor Tom Davis, Department of Athletics and Physical Education,
Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania, 18042.

Professor Clyde Partin, Department of Physical Education, Emory
University, Atlanta, Georgia, 30322.

3. Panel Discussion — “Teaching Sport History”

Inquiries about this session should be directed to Professor Alan Metcalfe,
Faculty of Physical Education, University of Windsor, Windsor II, Ontario, Canada.

PROGRAM

Wednesday, April 16

2:30- 4:30

NASSH Council Meeting

7:30- 9:00

John Betts Address

Thursday, April 17

9:30- 11:30

Session I - Baseball and the Academic Historian

Chairman: Eugene Murdock, Marietta College

Session will consist of two (2) thirty minute presentations and 15 minute formal reactions to each. One-half hour will be given to general discussion.

Session II

Chairwomen: Betty Spears, University of Massachusetts

Session will consist of three (3) 25 minute presentations and 45 minutes of general discussion.

12:00- 2:00

Luncheon — Seward Staley Address

2:30- 4:30

Session III - Colonials at Play

Chairwomen: June Kennard. Towson State College,
Baltimore

Format for Session I will be followed.

Session IV

Chairman: Gerald Redmond, University of Alberta

Format for Session II will be followed.

5:00- 6:30

NASSH Business Meeting

7:30- 9:00

Max Howell Address

Friday, April 18

9:30- 11:30

Session V - Crew and Other Intercollegiate Sports

Chairwoman: Margaret Woodhouse, Radford College

Format for Session I will be followed.

Session VI

Chairman: Alexander Young, Dalhousie University

Format for Session II will be followed.

12:00- 2:00

NASSH Council — Luncheon

2:30- 4:30

Session VII - Sport and Social Class in Canada and the United States

Chairman: Tom West, Sport Canada

Format for Session I will be followed.

Session VIII

Chairman: Paul Mills, Marion College

Format for Session II will be followed.

5:00- 6:30

Session IX - Teaching Sport History

Chairman: Alan Metcalfe, University of Windsor
Panel Discussion

Saturday, April 19

9:30- 11:30

Session X

Chairman: Tom Davis, Lafayette College

Format for Session II will be followed.

Session XI

Chairman: Clyde Partin, Emory University

Format for Session II will be followed.