

U.S. Olympic Society Formed

The establishment of the United States Olympic Society was announced recently by Philip O. Krumm, President of the U.S. Olympic Committee. Membership is open to every American who shares a mutual interest in the ideals and purposes of Olympic competition. The Society has begun publishing The Olympian ten times each year. Membership is $12.00 per year in this charter membership year. Applications should be sent to: United States Olympic Society, P.O. Box 776, Canal Street Station, New York, N.Y. 10013.