

Wingate Institute Seminar

The Second International Seminar on Physical Education and Sports in the Jewish History and Culture will take place at the Wingate Institute at Netanya, Israel from July 5-8, 1977. Seminar topics include "The view on Physical Activity in the Jewish Philosophical Thought," "Sociological Aspects of Physical Education and Sports in the Jewish Culture" "Physical Education and Sports in Ancient Judaism," and "Physical Education and Sports in Modern Judaism and in the State of Israel." The Seminar will be followed by the 10th Maccabiah Games which are scheduled to open on July 11th. Registration fee for the Seminar is $50.00 which covers several tours, receptions, materials and the Proceedings of the Seminar. Full board and lodging at the New Sport Hotel at Wingate Institute costs $12.00 per day. For further information write Dr. Uriel Simri, Wingate Institute, Wingate Post Office, Israel 42902.