
Recording of Sessions Restricted

The NASSH Council voted in June to not permit the recording of presentations at sessions of the NASSH convention in the future without written approval by the Council. This was done to limit distractions as well as to protect the rights of the individual presenters.