

Directory of Scholars in Sport History

The NASSH Publications Board has appointed two members to edit the second edition of a Directory of Scholars in Sport History. They are Angela Lumpkin of the University of North Carolina and John Findling of Indiana University Southeast. Data collection from NASSH members is underway. The publication which will consist of a list of individuals and their research interests, publications, and course offerings is scheduled to be published in 1979. The first edition was published in 1975, and the supply has been exhausted. No decision has been made regarding the cost to members and non-members. It was free to members in 1975. A minimum charge of $2.00 was levied to non-members.
