

CONTENTS

1986 CONFERENCE ABSTRACTS	Page
The Research-Teaching Connection: Calvinist Preparation and the Graduate Realm Nancy L. Struna	1
Chaos in the Brickyard? So What! A Look at the Role of Theory in Research and Teaching Victoria Paraschak	2
The Strange Case of Undergraduate Narcolepsy: Or Research That Didn't Belong in the Classroom Donald J. Mrozek	3
Aristophanes and the Good Old Days Donald G. Kyle	5
Sport Spectators in Ancient Greece Anthony J. Papalas	6
The Cultural Context of the Torch Race in Athens Synthia S. Slowikowski	7
Hockey in Canadian Fiction Gerald Redmond	8
Jennifer Levin's Water Dancer and the Feminist Sports Novel Michael Oriard	9
A Metaphor for Sport: Shakespeare's Use of Falconry in the Early Plays Don Morrow	11
Swiss Military Cadets and Sports (1758-1907) Louis W. Burgener	12
Cambridge University and the Development of Organized Sport: 1800-1860 Timothy J.L. Chandler	13
The Demise of the Oxford and Cambridge Achilles Club (1920-1985) Peter Treadwell	14
The British Sports Media During the First World War John Osborne	14
The Concept of the Professional "Player-Athlete" in Elizabethan and Jacobean England Mary McElroy	15
Writing a Biography of F.R. Spofforth 'The Demon' (1853-1926): Australia's First Cricket Folk Hero Richard Cashman	17
Sweetheart Sport: Barbara Ann Scott and the Post World War Two Image of the Female Athlete in Canada Don Morrow	18
Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary Betty Spears	19
Kentucky Women Choose a League: The Story of Their Participation in City Recreation Programs Peggy Stanaland	20
The Leisure Pursuits of North Carolina Upper-Class Women in the Twentieth Century Angela Lumpkin	22
Wealthy Women Establish Country Club Sport in Florida Paula Welch	23
Ada McKenzie: Golfer, Promoter, and Businesswoman Pamela F. Emory	24
Portrait of Olympic Athletes as Role Models, Mentors and Leaders: Olympics 1920-1936 Joan S. Hult	25
The Robust Woman and the Muscular Christian: Catherine Beecher, Thomas Higginson and Their Vision of American Society, Health, and Physical Activities Linda J. Borish	27
Exercise, Physical Capability and the Eternally Wounded Woman in 19th Century North America Patricia Vertinsky	28
The Limits of Science and the Appeal of Quackery Donald J. Mrozek	30
Hygienic and Educative: 19th Century Biology and the Rise of 'Modem' Physical Education Roberta J. Park	31
What the Big Boys Ate: The Food of Champions in the Golden Age of Sport James C. Whorton	32
Bemarr MacFadden: Reformer of Feminine Form Jan Todd	32
The First Sable Heroess - Blacks and the Regency Prize Ring Dennis Brailsford	34
The Black Athletic Hero and the "American Dilemma" Adolph H. Grundman	35
Understanding the Black Sport Experience: Questions, Interpretations, and Approaches David K. Wiggins	36
Mashies at Mapledale: A Black Country Club in Massachusetts During the 1920's Richard Porter Preiss	37
Sport Heroes in Cultural/ Historical Context: The Cases of Jackie Robinson (The Bonafied) and Joe Louis (The Bogus) Robert Knight Barney	38
Sport and White Ethnicity in Chicago, 1860-1920 Steven A. Riess	39

Bowled Over: The Texas Turnvereins Quit Gymnastics	Mary Lou LeCompte	40
Professional Preparation Concerns of the Normal College of the American Gymnastic Union, 1866-1919	Earle F. Zeigler	42
Turners in Iowa: Promoters of Fitness and Shapers of Culture	Janice A. Beran	43
Their Destiny Dictated: German- American Turnvereins and Socio - Politico - Economic Realities in the Deep South During the Antebellum and Civil War Periods - A Case Study of New Orleans, Louisiana Turners	Robert Knight Barney	44
Abner Doubleday Strikes Out Again: The Origins of Baseball in Southeast Texas	John M. Carroll	45
John McGraw: His Influence in the Development of Scientific Baseball	Albert J. Figone	46
They Shaped the Game: A Team of Baseball Innovators	David Q. Voigt	48
Ty Cobb - An Incompetent Manager?	Anthony J. Papalas	49
Hack Wilson: Early Superstar - Late Tragedy	Clyde Partin	50
Baseball and the Cold War	Ronald F. Briley	51
Speak English Coach: Preston Gomez of the Spokane Indians	Samuel Regalado	52
The Debates Between Harvard and Yale Begin	Roberta J. Park	53
Pre-NCAA Eligibility: Not Academic Concerns	Jay Helman	54
The Harvard-Yale Dual League Plan of the 1890's: A Failure of Elitism	Ronald A. Smith	55
The 1981 Collegc Basketball Gambling Scandals: An Examination of the Role of College Officials	Albert J. Figone	56
Redefining Athletic Excellence in the 1960's	David Zang	57
University and College Sport Histories: Survey and Analysis	John E. Findhng	58
John Mariucci: Godfather of American Hockey	Mary Lou Gust	59
Edmonton's Hockey Heritage	John Dewar	60
Enter the Canadian Mentally Handicapped Participant: 1950-1980 "Taking the Tram": Travelling to Sport and Recreation Activities on Greater Vancouver's Interurban Railway - 1890's to 1920's	Anne Tilley Barbara Schrodt	61 62
Arch Ward and his New Professional Football League	Thomas B. Littlewood	64
Televised Football: The Past Writ Large	Joan M. Chandler	65
The Cityscapists' Legacy: Realism, Recreation or Social History?	Harold L. Ray	65
The York Barbell Company and the Golden Age of American Weightlifting, 1945-1960	John D. Fair	67
Anabolic Steroids - The Gremlins of Sport	Terry Todd	68
Mallards and Messerschmitts: American Hunting Magazines and the World War II War Effort	Thomas L. Altherr	69
"W.G." and "John L." Cultural Conflict and Resolution Through Sport	Ralph C. Wilcox	70
Physical Education at Its Best - The Naval Aviation V-5 Pre-Flight Program	Bruce L. Bennett	71
The Founding of the Olympic Training Centers and the Technology of Sport	David McComb	72
Unavailable Abstracts		73
Council Meeting Minutes		74
Annual Business Meeting Minutes		77
Journal Editor's Report		79
NASSH Survey		81
Convention Book Display		82