

UNAVAILABLE ABSTRACTS

- Traditional Dene Games. Harvey Scott,
University of Alberta
- Take One Female Doctor . . . : Exercise Prescription
for the Late Nineteenth Century Woman Susan G. Zieff, University of California, Berkeley
- Sports in Literature: Merely a Metaphor or a Subject in Itself?. Alfred F. Boe, San Diego State University
- The Development of High Performance
Sports Medicine in Germany John Hoberman, University of Texas, Austin
- Metropolitan State College and NCAA Division One: The Road Not Taken. Adolph H. Grundman, Metropolitan State College
- Stalinism or Good Clean Fun? The Politics of Spectator Sport in the Soviet Union Robert Edelman, University of California, San Diego
- From the Buster Brown Bat to the Babe Ruth Autograph Model: The Progressive Market Penetration and Market Development of the Louisville Slugger, 1907-1920. Lawrence W. Fielding and Brenda G. Pitts, University of Louisville
- The Undramatic Clash of Titans:
Fritz Pollard vs. Red Grange. John M. Carroll, Lamar University
- Fitness on the Farm: The Image and Ideology of the Physical Health of Farm Women in Antebellum New England Linda J. Borish,
University of Maryland
- Exercise as a Medical Therapeutic for Women in Nineteenth Century America. Nancy C. Dosch,
University of Maryland

The Elite Nature of Sport and Business Club
Membership in Toronto, 1827-1881 Wayne Simpson, Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame

The IOC in Conflict. Shayne Quick,
Ohio State University

The US-Russian Basketball Game, 1972:
Prism for Olympic Problems. William Beezeley,
North Carolina State University